"So Long Betty"
a wonderful Robertson-Cole
Comedy Drama.

SATURDAY, OCT. 8th

WILL ROGERS
in a wonderful drama.

Pon to High Wins Opener. Start Season With a Win Over Lytle. HONDO 7—LYTLE 0.

The "High" football team journeyed to Lytle Thursday to open the football season and came back with the first victory of the year.

The team lined up with four new men on the line and, although they displayed lots of nervousness and awkwardness, they nevertheless gave promise of being fully able of taking care of their position in a manner that will retain Hondo's reputation for football supremacy.

Considering that this was the first game of the year, the team did remarkably well. With such veterans as Filleman, Bendele, Blocker, the Windrow boys, Bradley and Lacy, to spur them on, nothing but a bright future
is before the team and its vast array of followers.

The game itself was sort of a peculiar affair, with neither side showing very much in the way of real honest-to-goodness football. Lytle, although strong in defense, was poor in offense, while "High" showed a marked inclination to do just the opposite.

The line was weak in spots but with more training and able coaching, this weakness is almost certain to be eradicated. The rest of the team played their usual brand of high class football. Filleman's end—running and passing and Lacy's tackling were the features. Lacy made the only touchdown by catching a forward pass from Filleman in the 3rd quarter.

The team plays Sabinal at Sabinal
Oct. 4th. Games with Main Ave.
High and Pearsall are also on schedule for the month. If you can possibly attend these games do so, as it is a great encouragement to the team to see a Hondo "Bunch" behind them.

tem of borrowing—over forty-two million dollars. Why not you? 3

August Lutz.

Mr. August Lutz died, after a long illness, on Thursday, Sept. 22, 1921, at 8 p. m., at his home about two miles north of D'Hanis, and was laid to rest
Saturday morning in the Catholic cemetery, after funeral services were held in the Holy Cross Church by Rev.
F. Maas who also officiated at the grave, in the presence of a large cortege of relatives and friends.

The death of Mr. Lutz came not unexpected to the family and friends of the deceased as his sufferings were of many years standing, and the last seven months he was confined to his bed.

Mr. Lutz was born Sept. 18, 1868, in D'Hanis, where he lived his entire life. He was a true member of the Catholic church and a good citizen.

On November 15, 1892, he was married to Miss Elizabeth Lieber of Castroville. This union was blessed with seven children, six sons, Friedrich, Adolph, Willie, Elmer, Arthur and Louis; one daughter, Miss Mary, all of D'Hanis. Besides his children the deceased leaves two brothers, John and Joe Lutz; one sister, Mrs. Joe Haby, all of D'Hanis; one half-sister, Mrs.
Frank Huegele, of Uvalde, and many other near and dear relatives and friends to mourn his loss.

Pall bearers were: Messrs. Jos.
Koch, Pete Koch, Jr., Louis Carle, M.
P. Twomey, Jacob Vogel and Louis
Kiebert.

A good man has gone to his reward.
May he rest in peace.—D'Hanis Star.

RED CROSS WORKING FOR HEALTHIER U. S.

Thousands Aided by Instruction in Care of the Sick, Food Selection and First Aid.

How the American Red Cross guides thousands of persons to health is shown in a summary of the society's activities in the health field based upon the annual report for the last fiscal year. Through its Nursing Service, its Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick courses, nutrition classes, First Aid classes, Life-Saving classes and Health Centers and in numerous other ways designed to acquaint masses of citizens with proper methods of living, the Red Cross carried its message of health into all parts of the country.

The work of the Red Cross during the war in its traditional field of nursing, furnishing the military and naval establishments of the nation with 19,877 nurses, is well known. And there are today 37,787 nurses registered with the American Red Cross and subject to call in emergency. During the fiscal year, 1,551 Red Cross nurses were accepted for assignment to Government service, 388 by the Army and Navy and 1,163 by the United States Public Health Service.

In addition to the nurses enrolled by the Red Cross for Government service, the Red Cross itself employed a total of 1,348 public health nurses in the United States and Europe. By far the greatest number was employed in the United States, 1,257, while 81 were in foreign service.

Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick classes, giving thorough instruction in the proper care of the sick in instances where the illness is not so serious as to require professional nursing care, during the fiscal year numbered 5,179. A statistical picture of the Red Cross operations in this field follows:

New classes formed during year	5,179
Classes completed during year	6,236
New students enrolled	101,068
Students completing course	73,432

What the Red Cross accomplished in giving proper instruction through its Nutrition Service is indicated by the following table:

New classes formed during year	142
Classes completed during year	186
New students enrolled	2,341
Students completing course	2,013

In addition to the above, a total of 22,006 children were given instruction in the proper selection and preparation of foods.

Through its 260 Health Centers, the Red Cross reached 90,252 persons. In these Health Centers, 4,015 health lectures were given and 780 health exhibits held.

In the United States last year, 75,432 persons were killed and 3,500,000 injured in industrial accidents. To prevent this enormous waste the Red Cross held 5,100 first aid classes with a total of 104,000 students enrolled.

To remove bilious impurities in the system and be made internally clean and healthy, you need the fine tonic and laxative properties of Herbine. It acts quickly and thoroughly. Price 60c. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

"Better make your own arrangements about the horses," Gardiner whispered as they left the room. "We can't be too careful to keep our business secret."

As they stood for a moment in the waiting room it occurred to Allan that some shooting might be found in the mountains. "You haven't got a gun
you could lend me, I suppose?" he said to Gardiner.

"What do you want a gun for?"
Gardiner demanded brusquely.

"Might get a shot at a partridge, or something. No harm in having one along, is there?"

"Oh, no, but I don't expect you'll see anything to justify the trouble.
Anyway, I haven't got one."

"There's a shotgun here," said the hotel clerk, who had overheard the last remarks. "If that would suit you.
A Cholly who was taking a short course in poker put it up a few days ago as a standoff on his eat score.
There's ten bones against it; if it's worth that to you, take it."

He handed the gun over the counter, and Allan examined it with interest. He recognized an English weapon of a value out of all proportion to the price asked.

"I'll take it," he said, and paid down
the money. There was a momentary darkening of Gardiner's face which nobody noticed.

The little party then moved out to the street. Gardiner had regained his smooth manner, and gave some final directions about the road.

"Oh, we'll find it all right," said Allan, in high spirits, "and we'll beat you to the shanty unless you've some faster nags at home than any I see you driving. So long."

"So long," called Gardiner. "So long, and good luck."

"So long, an' good luck," repeated
Riles. He was trying to play the game,
but, as Gardiner often reminded him,
he had no imagination. It would have been quite impossible for Riles, on his own initiative, to have thought of wishing the Harrises "good luck" on the journey they were about to commence. . . . They were interesting types of villains—one, gentlemanly, suave, deep and resourceful; the other,
coarse, shallow, slow-witted and brutal.
The offense of one against society was wholly intellectual; of the other, almost wholly physical. Gardiner fully appreciated the difference, and in his heart he felt a contempt and loathing toward Riles which he concealed only as a matter of policy. And he had worked out in his mind a little plan
by which Riles, when his usefulness was ended, should be shuffled off without any share in the booty. At present he tolerated him because of necessity. There was work before them for which Riles was peculiarly qualified.

The Harrises went at once to a livery stable, where they arranged for a team and outfit. They then bought some cartridges for the gun, and a small handbag in which to carry the money.

When Harris presented himself at the bank wicket and asked for the full amount to his credit in cash, the sallow-faced teller turned a trifle paler still and slipped into the manager's office. A moment later the manager himself appeared before them.

"That's a pretty heavy order on a country bank, Mr. Harris. Of course
we could give it to you in exchange, but to pay twenty thousand dollars or thereabouts in bills will drain us to almost our last dollar. Can't you use a marked check, or a draft on a Calgary
bank?"

"Well, no," Harris said; "I'm afraid
we can't."

"A marked check is as good as bills,"
the banker argued, "and much easier to carry, not to speak of being safer,"
he added, as an afterthought. "Travelling with that amount of money on you is a sort of defiance of natural law, especially with the country full of strangers, as it is at present." The banker looked from the powerful frame of the farmer to the equally powerful frame of the farmer's son, and his eye fell on the gun which the latter carried under his arm. "But I guess," he continued with a laugh, "there isn't much danger on that score."

"Nothin' t' speak of," said Harris.
"And while I don't want t' break your bank, I do want t' get that money, and t' get it in bills, or part of it in gold an' silver would do. The fact is, I don't mind tellin' you, I've a deal on,
an' I've undertaken t' put up this money in cash—tonight."

A young man emerged from somewhere and locked the front door of the bank.

"It's closing time now," said the teller, addressing the manager. "We have enough cash on hand to pay this gentleman, and we can wire for more bills, which will reach us in time for tomorrow's business."

"Pay it, then," said the manager.
"Mr. Harris has a right to his money in that form if he wants it. "But," he added, turning to Harris, "I'd advise you to keep both eyes on it until your transaction is completed."

The counting of the money was a bigger task than either Harris or Allan had thought, but at last it was completed, and they were ready for the road. The banker looked after their buggy as it faded out of sight up the river road.

"Hang me if I like that!" he said to himself.

The long drive up the valley in the warm August afternoon was an experience for the soul of painter or poet.
Even John and Allan Harris, schooled
as they were in the religion of matterial things, felt something within them responding to the air, and the sunlight, and the dark green banks of trees, and the sound of rushing water,
and the purple-blue mountains heaving

"About six months ago I found Doan's Kidney Pills to be an A-1 remedy for kidney trouble. My back was sore and my kidneys acted irregularly. I felt tired, worn out and had no ambition to do anything. I had a dull pain in my

Doan's Kidney Pills and thought I would try them. One box of Doan's

Darkness settled about them. One or two stars came out. The poplars took on the color of the spruce; the river fretted more noisily in its rocky channel. A thin ribbon of cloud lay across the mountains, and a breeze of wonderful mellowness came down
through the passes.

At length, just as they were thinking of pitching camp for the night, Allan espied a deserted cabin in a cluster of trees by the side of the road. They turned into the wood and unhitched the horses.

A match revealed a lantern hanging
on the wall, and a few cooking utensils,
safe from all marauders under the unwritten law of the new land.

EDITORIALS BY THE EDITOR.

THE BEST OF LIFE.

The best of life is living
The moments as they go
In tender, sweet thanksgiving
For all we worship so,
Our gardens bright and cheery,
Home after journey ends,
The song of thrush and veery,
Books, music, loved ones, friends.

The best of life is in saying
No moment that we meet
In all our longing, praying
As this is half as sweet;
The best of life is in living
Within the Right's full sway
High heartedly and giving
A little love away.

The best of life is ever
In meeting with a smile,
Whole-hearted gay endeavor
Our fortunes all the while;
In planning something fairer
Each day to be our goal,
And striving for that rarer
Beauty of heart and soul.

—Detroit Free Press.

With only one life to live, "the best of life" should be the quest of life!

THE best of life is never found in selfish pleasures. He realizes the best out of life who gives to the service of humanity the best that is in his life!

FARM women die earlier than farm men, while in towns and cities the women live longer than the men, screams a contemporary. And it complains that the reason is because farm women work harder than town women. To be sure, isn't the fact that farm women work harder taking care of their men folk than do their city sisters evidenced by the earlier mortality of the city man?

CO-OPERATIVE marketing is being held up to producers everywhere as the panacea that is going to cure all of their economic and financial ills. And just in the proportion farmers accept the theory, just to that degree are they going to be disappointed. Co-operative marketing has a useful place to fill in the affairs of the farmer, but economic production is a first and prime essential of all successful marketing, individual or collective. More production per acre at less cost must never be lost sight of.

EX SECRETARY of the Treasury, David F. Houston, in a recent magazine article, says that since the foundation of our government we have expended in round numbers 67 billions of dollars, and of this 58 billions were for war; that is, for the army, navy, their auxiliaries, on pensions and interest on the public debt. Mr. Houston could have added that 25 billions, or more than a third of this stupendous sum, was spent in fighting the recent war in Europe, and we are just beginning to pay pensions for that stupendous blunder, to say nothing about the much talked of soldier bonus. The United States was staggering under its burden of debt and taxes before this 25 billion accretion was added to it. How our children are to escape slavery on one hand or repudiation on the other is a riddle only time can solve.

ACCORDING to the Federal Bureau of Crop Estimates, the level of prices paid producers of the United States for the principal crops increased about 0.5 per cent (one-half of one per cent) during August. During the past ten years the price level decreased about 2.7 per cent during August. On September 1st the index figure of prices was about 54.4 per cent lower than a year ago, 57.7 per cent lower than two years ago, and 33.9 per cent lower than the average of the past ten years on September 1st. These figures are for field crops. The figures for live stock are none the less striking. The prices of meat animals—hogs, cattle, sheep and chickens—to the producers thereof in the United States increased 3.8 per cent from July 15th to August 15th. In the past ten years prices increased in a like period 1.4 per cent. On August 15th the index figure of prices for these meat animals was about 34.5 per cent lower than a year ago, 49.0 per cent lower than two years ago, and 17.1 per cent lower than the average of the past ten years on August 15th. The striking feature of these figures is not the advance over the preceding month, but the surprising low level of prices as compared with former periods. Prices to producers, instead of being further deflated, must needs be inflated materially before they can get back to "normalcy", not to mention paying the interest on the Nation's inflated public debt.

Miss Mary FitzSimon has returned from Del Rio where she had been employed for the past year as Public Nurse. Miss FitzSimon will spend several weeks visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. T. FitzSimon, here and relatives in San Antonio before taking up her work elsewhere.

Mrs. Joe Haby and sons of Cliff were visitors here Sunday.

Cotton Prices Should Go Higher.

BY GEO. B. TERRELL
Commissioner of Agriculture.

The United States Government Cotton Report issued Sept. 1st, shows the condition of the cotton crop to be 49.3 per cent and the estimated yield to be 7,037,000 bales, the shortest crop in more than a quarter of a century.

Damages from insect pests, and the recent heavy rains and floods may reduce the yield below the government estimate, especially the Texas crop.

	Bales
Total carryover is.....	6,499,108
Less 24 per cent damaged and untenderable cotton.....	1,559,785
Total tenderable cotton.....	4,939,323
Estimated yield 1921.....	7,037,000
Total crop and carryover.....	11,976,323
Or in round numbers.....	12,000,000
Estimated domestic consumption and exports to August 1st, 1922.....	12,000,000

These figures by the government virtually wipe out any surplus cotton at the end of the present cotton year, Aug. 1, 1922.

The world's production for the crop of 1920, cotton year closing Aug. 1, 1921, was 15,595,000 bales.

The estimated production for the crop of 1921, cotton year closing Aug. 1, 1922, based on last year's yield of all foreign countries, is as follows:

United States.....	7,037,000 Bales
India.....	2,976,000 "
Egypt.....	1,251,000 "
China.....	1,000,000 "
Russia.....	180,000 "
Brazil.....	160,000 "
Mexico.....	165,000 "
Peru.....	157,000 "
All others.....	400,000 "

Total World's Supply 13,266,000 Bales Or 6,329,000 bales less than that for the cotton year just closed.

With such an unprecedented short crop, the price should advance at least to 25 cents per pound, and if the crop is marketed gradually, so as to give the mills their actual needs and no more, the price should materially advance, and the crop should be held down next year to actual needs of the mills in order to maintain the advance.

A circular has been sent out from Boston to the new England spinners stating that the cost of producing this cotton crop is the lowest in years, and that a price of 10 or 11 cents for cotton will yield a good profit to the producers.

Statistics furnished by the cotton growers of Texas, as to the cost of production, and carefully compiled, show that it cost above 40 cents per pound this year. If the yield per acre this year had been as much as last year, the cost of production would have been much lower.

The statements in the Boston circular as to cost of producing cotton this year, are deliberate misrepresentations, in order to bear the price of cotton. Every indication points to higher prices, if supply and demand are to control.

Baffling.

Doctor White—I'm up against it. I've a patient suffering from aches and pains, and I don't know what is causing the trouble.

Doctor Black—Had his teeth examined?

Doctor White—That's the point. I had all his teeth taken out two years ago, but what are you to do when a man has quite run out of teeth?

Only Financial Pain.

"An eminent medical authority says the heart does not feel pain."

"I didn't know that before," said the thoughtful citizen. "Poets, novelists and playwrights had misled me. But I never did believe there was any kind of pain that could be alleviated by the 'heart balm' awarded in a breach-of-promise suit."

No Wall Flower.

"She's an intellectual young woman."

"Decidedly."

"And yet I understand she's popular. How do you account for that?"

"When she goes to dance she checks her brains, figuratively speaking, at the door."

$10,000,000 AID FOR VETERANS

Red Cross Provides Friendly Service of Many Kinds to Army of Disabled.

BULK OF WORK BY CHAPTERS

2,397 of These Are Helping Ex-
Service Men Obtain Benefits U. S. Provides.

One field of Red Cross service alone, that of assisting disabled veterans of the World War, entails expenditures $4,000,000 greater than the aggregate receipts of the Annual Roll Call of 1920, the American Red Cross announces in a statement urging a widespread increase in membership at the Annual Roll Call, November 11 to 24. At the present time National Headquarters and the nation-wide chain of Chapters of the Red Cross is spending approximately $10,000,000 annually for the relief of disabled ex-service men and their families, while the aggregate receipts from last year's Roll Call were approximately $6,000,000.

It is in the 2,289 of the 3,600 Red Cross Chapters which still are helping solve the veteran's problem of adjusting himself to a normal civilian status that the greater part of the cost of this service is borne. Of the total sum spent for veterans' relief last year, National Headquarters expended a total of more than $2,600,000, while the remaining disbursement of approximately $7,000,000 represents the contribution of Chapters in this country-wide effort to assist the Government in providing the aid sorely needed by these men and their families.

An Ever Expanding Problem
That the problem of the disabled service man is ever-expanding and probably will not reach the peak before 1925, is the assertion of well-informed Government officials and that 2,397 Red Cross Chapters regard it as their most important work is evidence that the expansion is in nowise confined to a particular section but is, on the contrary, nation-wide. At the end of the fiscal year, June 30, 1921, there were 26,500 disabled service men in the 1,692 United States Public Health Service, Contract and Government Hospitals and Soldiers Homes, and that number is increasing at a rate of 1,000 a month.

Thousands of these men receiving medical treatment, compensation and vocational training from the Government today, started their efforts to obtain them through the Red Cross Chapter. The Chapter, acting as the disabled man's agent in claims against the Government, informs the man as to the procedure necessary to gain for him that which is provided him by Federal statute. His applications for compensation, medical treatment and training are properly filed with the aid of the Red Cross Chapter.

Many Forms of Assistance
If there is delay before the man's claim is acted upon, the Red Cross Chapter lends the man money to meet the imperative needs of himself and his dependents.

Most vital to the man's gaining full benefit from the Government's care is keeping his mind free from worry about his home. Keeping the veteran's family from hardship of every kind and informing him of its welfare is another province of the Chapter. Free from fear on this score, the man's recovery and advancement usually is rapid.

Every month during the last year, the American Red Cross has given service of one kind or another to an average of 129,215 former service men and their families. An indication of the extent of the faith reposed in the Red Cross Chapter is to be found in the fact that there were 356,544 requests for friendly aid in the solution of personal problems.

448 Workers in Hospitals
While the man prior to entering Government care deals largely with the Chapter, afterward he comes into contact with the service provided by National Headquarters. There are 448 Red Cross workers in the United States Public Health Service and contract hospitals and other institutions in which these men are being cared for, whose duty is to provide for his recreation, help him with his compensation claims, keep him in touch with his family; in short, meeting his every need outside of that provided by the Government. While these are a few of the responsibilities of the National Organization, they are by no means all. Among other Red Cross accomplishments for the year are:

It handled 70,732 allotment and allowance claims.

It delivered through its Chapter organization 63,655 allotment checks to veterans who had moved from the addresses furnished to the Bureau of War Risk Insurance.

It provided a special fund of $10,000 for medical assistance to men under vocational training.

It made $2,496 loans totaling $450,000 to men taking vocational training, of which 85 per cent has been repaid.

WONDERFUL GAIN IN WEIGHT REPORTED

Young Woman Only Weighed 76
Pounds--Now Weighs Over 160, And Is Gaining
Every Day.

"Before I began taking Tanlac I only weighed 76 pounds. I now weigh over one hundred and am gaining every day," said Miss LaRue Davis, of Chattanooga, Tenn.

"I bought my first bottle of Tanlac at Gas City, Ind., and it helped me so much that I continued using it. I have always been very delicate and suffered a great deal from stomach trouble and rheumatism. I rarely ever had any appetite and simply could not relish anything. I fell off until I only weighed 76 pounds and was so thin I looked perfectly awful. This is the condition I was in when I began taking Tanlac.

"Oh, I feel so different now. Even my complexion is improved. My appetite is good and I can hardly get enough to eat. Tanlac is simply grand and I can truthfully say it is the only medicine that has ever done me any good."

Tanlac is sold in Hondo by W. H. Windrow, and by leading druggists everywhere.

To Our Subscribers.

During the trying years of war-time and drouth, we have not bothered you with importunities to pay up your subscriptions. As a consequence, the years have glided by unnoticed and several have allowed themselves to get behind with their payments. This is the harvest season of the year, and the time to pay up accounts. Then, too, we are contemplating some much needed improvements in our printing plant. A prompt payment of all that is due on our subscriptions would enable us to make these improvements without any serious financial stringency. Will you not come to our assistance by sitting down at once and mailing a check for one or more year's subscription to us. Thereby you will help us materially and save the labor and expense of our later sending a statement to you. If convenient drop into the office in person and pay to some representative of the paper.

Of course, we know you mean to settle this account when convenient, but if you will make it convenient to do so at once it will greatly oblige us.

RED CROSS RESCUED 600,000 FROM DEATH

Spent $1,200,000 for Relief of Famine Sufferers in China
Last Year.

To help overcome conditions of acute distress in five famine stricken provinces of Northern China, where millions of persons were affected by an unprecedented shortage of food, the American Red Cross during the last fiscal year spent more than $1,200,000, $1,000,000 of which was contributed directly by National Headquarters and the remainder by various groups interested in the welfare of China.

Through the wide relief operations thus made possible it is estimated that more than 600,000 famine sufferers were saved from starvation.

To the end that similar prompt relief measures by the organization may always be possible the Red Cross is asking continued support by the American people by universal renewal of membership at the Annual Red Cross Roll Call, November 11 to 24.

The method of relief employed by the American Red Cross in its operations in China was particularly effective, for in addition to saving hundreds of thousands of lives it provided China with more than 900 miles of permanent roads that are sorely needed to prevent a recurrence of famine. At one time the Red Cross employed 74,000 Chinese workmen, paying them in food for themselves and dependents, this food being brought in from Manchuria and elsewhere.

Succeeding former President Wilson, President Harding was recently elected president of the American Red Cross. He is here seen accepting the office. From left to right: Maj. Gen. Merritte W. Red Cross Gives $310,000 to Aid 'Clean-Up' Drive

An appropriation of $310,000 for Red Cross work in connection with the "clean-up" campaign instituted by the Government to bring the claims of all disabled service men who are entitled to Federal aid before the proper government bureau for action, has been made by the American Red Cross. The Executive Committee of the American Red Cross in making the appropriation authorized the appropriation of $35,000 of this sum to the American Legion to defray the expense of the Legion representatives assigned to the various districts of the Veterans Bureau.

The remainder of the appropriation was authorized for apportionment among the several Divisions of the Red Cross for carrying on that part of the "clean-up" work that falls directly upon the Red Cross organization.

Young America Sends Vast Relief To Needy Abroad

Various relief projects of the Junior American Red Cross in European countries resulted in helping 237,000 destitute children during the last fiscal year, according to the annual report of the American Red Cross for that period. The growth of the activities of the Juniors abroad is manifested by a comparison which shows this figure is 200,000 larger than that of the previous fiscal year.

The National Children's Fund raised by school children, members of the Junior American Red Cross, was drawn upon for $420,557 for these projects. Receipts for the National Children's Fund during the last fiscal year totaled $155,317.

America Succors Russians

Food, clothing and medical relief costing $700,000 has been provided by the American Red Cross for the thousands of Russian refugees stranded last year in Constantinople and vicinity.

Red Cross Trains 147 Blind Vets In Useful Work

Training designed to fit them for the battle of life was taken by 147 blind ex-service men at the Red Cross Institute for the Blind, near Baltimore, Md., during the fiscal year 1920-1921, according to the report of the Institute for that period.

Of this number, 19 have gone on to other institutions, in almost every case to institutions where those having sight are receiving advanced education. The blind ex-service men who have entered such institutions are provided with special text-books in Braille, reading which they were taught at the Red Cross Institute.

Twelve men have passed from the Institute to successfully carry on some occupation or business for which they were fitted by special training. A few have withdrawn from the Institute because of poor physical condition, 14 are receiving further "training on the job" and 87 are still in training.

Red Cross Plans $6,000,000 Effort To Save Children

Medical care and clothing for thousands of children in Central and Eastern Europe are outlined as the activities of the American Red Cross in Europe for the current year, says a statement on the eve of the Annual Roll Call of the organization. These activities, supplemental to the feeding operations of the European Relief Council of which Herbert Hoover is chairman, are designed to provide the most adequate and balanced relief within the resources of private philanthropy.

Through the establishment of child welfare stations in the centers of population of those countries where adequate medical care is not now obtainable, the American Red Cross plans to provide the medical assistance needed to restore these children to a normally healthy life. The sum of $6,000,000 has been made available for this work.

Annual Roll Call Nov 11-24, 1921

To bring before the country in visual form the vast problem it is helping to solve, the American Red Cross has prepared for its Annual Roll Call, Nov. 11 to 24, a poster showing how rather than diminishing the total of World War veterans entitled to Federal aid continues to grow. Red Cross service to these men is costing $10,000,000 a year.

MEANT GIFT TO BE USEFUL

Sender of Wedding Present Know Quite Well What Her Sister Would Need in Time.

"What a peculiar choice for a wedding present," remarked an Englishwoman, trying not to laugh, as she inspected a huge flatiron which her chat-rsoman had just purchased.

"Ain't it, ma'am?" said the charwoman. "It's my sister that's getting married, and I'm repaying her for the gift she sent on for me on my wedding day."

"Did she send you something very ugly, then?"

"Deed, no, ma'am. Her's was a beautiful present. But, you see, ma'am, a little bird whispered to me that her future husband's a man of violent temper, and I thought I'd send her something that would be useful in case of family disputes. She has the straightest aim with a flatiron I ever seed!"—Houston Post.
